RALLYING DAY. Its Observance in Assembly's Pr terian and E. St. Baptist Sunday-schools. Rally day was appropriately celebrated yesterday by the scholars, teachers, and officers of the Assembly's Church Sunday-

All the scholars gathered in the main All the scholars guthered in the main schoolroom and the pastor, Rev. George O. Little, D. D., reviewed the lessons of the last quarter. At the conclusion of the review two of the Sunday-school boys, Masters Lamson and Kimbail, sang a duet. Supt. McBath announced that rolleall was next on the programme, and Secretary Shane proceeded to call the classes and names.

Out of a total membership of about 300, 171 responded yesterday, and the superintendent was much pleased at the success of railying day in bringing out such a large number of scholars. The prospects are favorable for a continuous and steady growth of Assembly's school, and it is thought that on the next railying day the number of maplis who respond to the rolleall will be twice as large as that of yesterday.

spond to the rollcall will be twice as large as that of yesterday.

The Sunday-shoel of E Street Baptist Church is one of the largest and most successful institutions of its character in Washington. There are at present more than 500 pupils enrolled and nearly all of them were present yesterday, when rallying day was observed.

The exercises were of the same general character as those in other schools, and consisted of a review of inst quarter's Sunday-school lessons by the superintendent, a short talk explaining the objects of observing the day, and calling the roll. There was also singing of several Gospel choruses by the school. Upon the conclusion of roll-call it was found that more than two-thirds of the entire mem was from his eidest brother, and read:

Dear Old Friend: I have joined the regular Army. In other words, I have taken unto myself a wife. Not one of your gay little butterflies, but a real helpment. (dask paused for a moment to remark, "I suppose he has reference to that butterfly of a Madge Proctor he was engaged to at one time. Don't put yourselves out in the least to entertain us, for we will only drop in for a few days at most. You may jook for us to-morrow at 2. Telegraph if not convenient to entertain. Yours, dc.,

Mr. Bolkin's last words as he left the house in for a few days at most. You may look for us to emerciain. Yours, &c.,

Mr. Bodkin's last words as he left the house in corder, and a never seen you."

Mr. Bodkin had scarcely closed the door behind him ere the little lady had her plans all made. "It will be such a pleasant surprise for Jack to come home and find the house in order, and a nice lunch on the table, "she said, softly humming her favorite air, and keeping time with her dainty slippered little foot." Yes J. will construct the surprise state of the said as she rolled up her sleeves in a very business-like way.

"I remember now there are none in the house. Jack says they are none in the house.
